Bartender of the Month Carrie Barnes "Poetry In Motion"

It's Friday night the day after Thanksgiving and the bar at Sharkey's is slammed. They have 3 of their best bartenders on and they are all moving so fast it's almost a blur to watch them. Nate, Tanner and Carrie maneuver the bar with the grace of ballerinas, but Carrie stands out the most. With her small size and adorable "girl next door" looks she zigs and zags around the big guys. They are all so much fun to watch, their camaraderie is contagious and the customers love it.

Paul and Adam, the owners, know what they are doing. With their great food and superb entertainment they'd better have fast bartenders. You won't have to wait long here for a drink.

Carrie has been at Sharkey's for four years. A native Floridian, born and raised in Homestead, she knows the locals like the back of her hand and gets along with everybody. It was a pure coincidence to find out that Carrie has a beautiful 3 1/2 year old daughter, Mackenzie, who's dad is Mike Hupka, also a bartender of the month that works at Pierre's.

Mackenzie is blessed with great genes.

What do her co-workers have to say about her?

"She's always happy. Probably because she doesn't date me, just works with me...Too bad," said Spencer, another Sharkey's employee.

"I recommended her because not only is she fin to work with but she has a cute butt too," says Carrie's co-worker Nate.
