Bartender of the Month
Georgeanne Atwell

"Georgeanne Atwell has got to be the friendliest bartender in town," says Kevin Doyle, the owner of Pontunes Water Taxi's. The Coconut Telegraph agrees. We popped into the newly opened Latin American Restaurant to see what was going on and lo and behold there was Georgeanne, one of our favorite bartenders from Gilbert's Resort that's right across the waterway.

Gilbert's. Reinhard, Karina, George and Suzi are like family. The best part about my job is I get to see the snowbirds come back each year. I think everyone should come and discover the Latin American. The bar has been relocated so it is now outside on the water. It's cute as a button! The food is great and inexpensive and we have entertainment on weekends."

What do her customers and friends have to say about her...

"She is among the best bartenders in the Keys," declared Rob.

Reinhard and Karina Schapp the owners of Gilbert's recently purchased opened and restored the Latin American Restaurant on Jewfish Creek. They decided to have a soft opening so they could work out the kinks before large crowds arrived. They needed help and Georgeanne stepped up to the plate, knowing that things would be slow at first because she is that kind of employee. She is honest, dependable and never stops smiling.

"She is bouncy and upbeat," said Howie. Bob commented, "No matter how busy she is her positive attitude stays the same." "Her smile says it all," says Greg. "She remembers everyone's names, it a-mazes me. She is fun to be a-round and always has a genu-ine concern for other people."

Georgeanne and her 16-year-old son Sam, who is now a student at Coral Shores High School, sailed here on a vacation 6 years ago and never left. Georgeanne tells us "I love working at

The Coconut Telegraph discovered the secret to Georgeanne's smile. She graduated from Stonybrook University with a degree in Theater Arts and was a Stage Manager in Rhode Island. That's why if she is having a bad day her customers won't know it. She is just happy to be making them happy.
