

Drinks and Personalities

Bartenders in the Keys were asked if they could nail a person's personality based on their drink of choice. Though interviewed separately, they concurred on almost all counts.

Alcohol and the Female Personality:

Drink: Beer
 Personality: Casual, low-maintenance, down to earth.
 Your Approach: Challenge her to a game of pool.

Drink: Blender Drinks
 Personality: Flaky, whiny, annoying, a pain in the butt.
 Your Approach: Avoid her, unless you want to be her cabin boy.

Drink: Mixed Drinks
 Personality: Older, more refined, high maintenance, very picky, knows it all.
 Your Approach: You won't have to approach her, if she is interested she will send you a drink.

Drink: Wine (does not include White Zinfandel, see below)
 Personality: Conservative and classy, sophisticated yet giggles.
 Your Approach: Tell her you love to travel and spend quiet evenings with friends.

Drink: White Zinfandel
 Personality: Easy, thinks she is sophisticated but has no clue.
 Your Approach: Make her feel smarter than she is, this should be an easy target.

Drink: Shots
 Personality: Likes to hang out with toothless guys and is looking to get totally drunk... and naked.
 Your Approach: Easiest hit in the joint. You have been blessed this evening. Nothing to do but wait. However, be careful not to make her mad!

Alcohol and the Male Personality

Domestic Beer: He's poor and wants to get laid.
 Imported Beer: He likes good beer and wants to get laid.

Wine: He's hoping that the wine thing will make him look sophisticated and help him get laid.

Whiskey: He doesn't give a hoot about anything but getting laid.

Tequila: He is thinking he has a chance with the toothless waitress.

White Zinfandel: He's gay (and looking to get laid).

Third Annual Fun-Pub Walk
RELAY WITH RALPHIE
 Remembering Ralph Smith
Saturday, Nov. 3, 2007
 Check-in at Snooks: 10:30 AM • Start Time: 11:00 AM

Ralph Smith, a popular bartender at Snook's in Key Largo for many years, passed away on June 28, 2005, after suffering a heart attack while at work behind the bar. To honor Ralph's memory, his friends and associates conducted the first annual fun-pub walk in October of 2005. The walk raised over $2,000 in contributions, which were donated to the Upper Keys Humane Society and Relay for Life. The 2006 walk raised over $5,000 for the two charities. This year's goal is $7,500.

The 6.3 mile walk will begin at 10:30 AM at Snook's and proceed to sponsored stops. Participants are asked to collect dollar pledges toward their completion of the walk.

This is what happens when you forget to pay to use the boat ramp

You know you're in the Keys when...

- The only shoes you own are different varieties of flip-flops.
- You have driven at least one Keys Cruiser.
- Vehicles with out-of-state license tags constantly pass you.
- There are only 3 levels of sobriety: sober (morning), stoned (afternoon) and smashed (anytime).
- You've gone through crib-death (an all-nighter at the Caribbean Club), and though you swear you won't again, it just keeps happening.
- Your land is worth more than your house.
- Someone asks, "Where is Iz-luh-more-a-day?"
- You only put on sun block when you are on a boat because otherwise you are always in the shade.
- Every bartender knows you and what you drink.
- You know everyone everywhere you go and you've known him or her for 3 generations.
- You party with your car salesman, doctor and housekeeper at the same place.
- In order for it to be bad weather, it's got to be a category 3 or higher.
- In some way or another your income depends on tourism.
- You can get anywhere by boat but you have to drive an hour to get to a mall.
