

The Conch Republic

FREE

• Dining

• Entertainment

• Shopping

• Lodging

COCONUT TELEGRAPH

101425 Overseas Hwy. • PMB #628 • Key Largo, FL 33037 • 305-304-2837 • TheCoconutTelegraph@Yahoo.com • April 2008

Inside

History of Conch Republic
Adopt at Animal Shelter
Remedy's Health Food Column
Fractional Ownership Q & A

Attractions

Entertainers of the Month
...Drein and Mike
Artist of the Month
...James "J.C." Costello

Map

Getting From Here to There

Special Events

Anglers Raise Money for Cystic
Fibrosis: Redbone Tarpon
Tournament, April 25th

What's Hot & What's Not

Sounds of the Keys

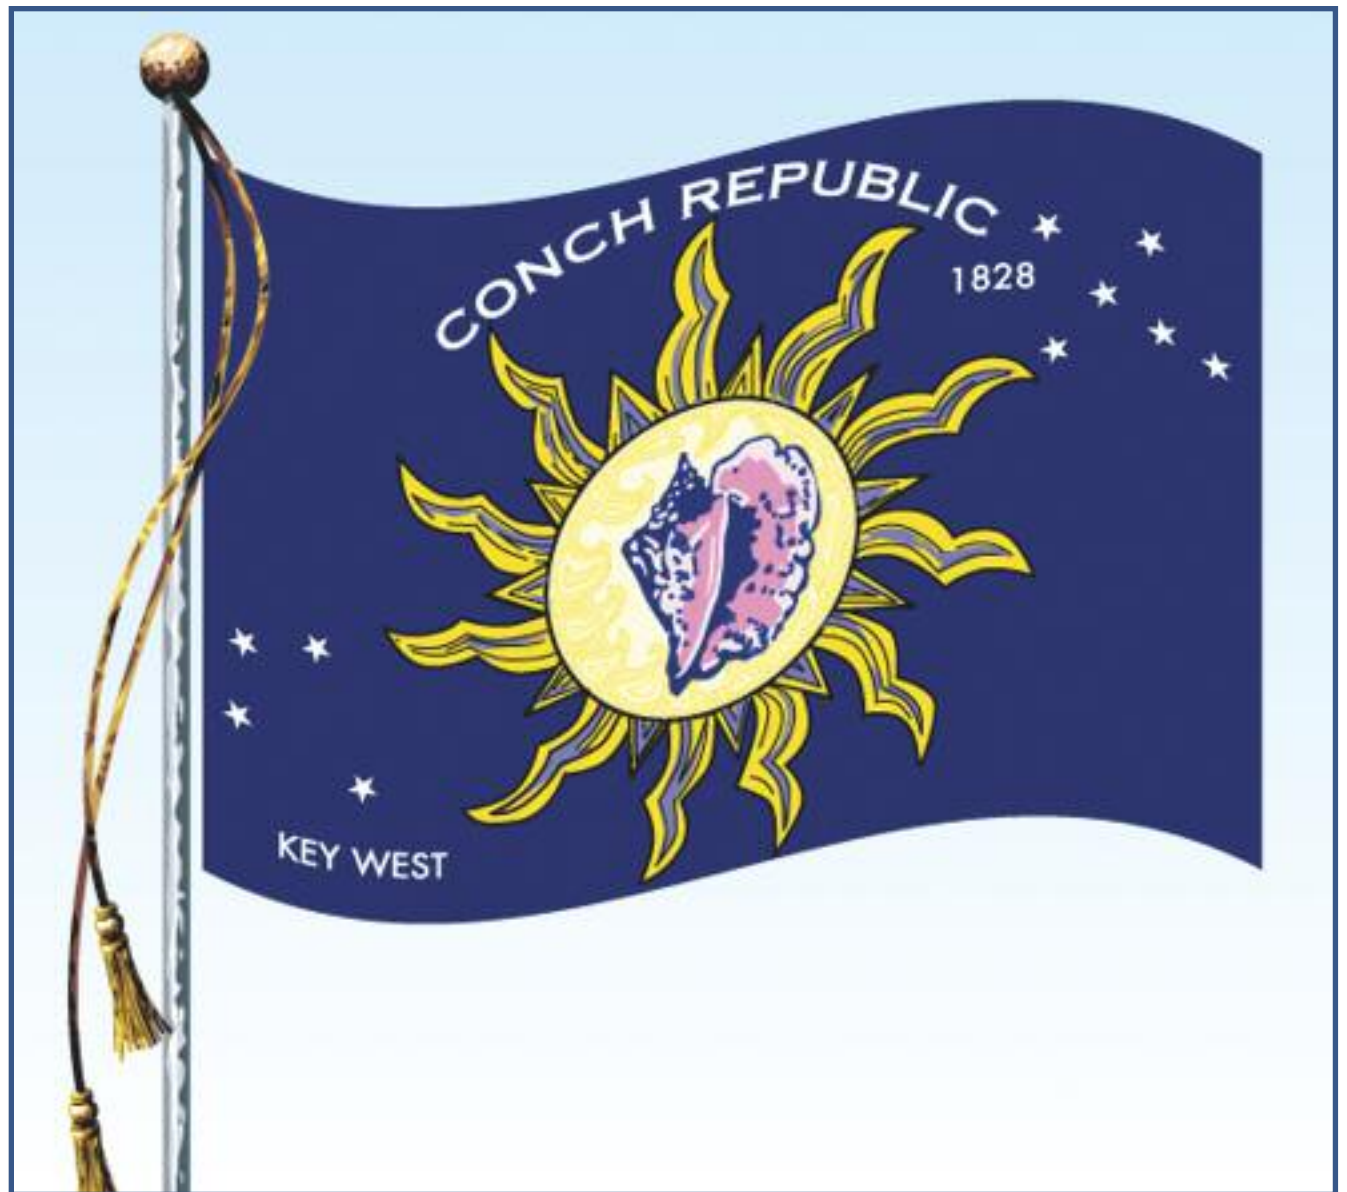

All the Buzz

The Gonz: Letters
From a Crash Test
Dummy

Tearing Down to Rebuild
Conch Characters
Coco'Nut'' Funnies

You Can Find The Coconut Telegraph at over 100 locations from Homestead to Key West

The Conch Republic

The Conch Republic

Proclamation of Secession - April 23, 1982

We, the people of the Florida Keys, wish to proclaim to the world our independence from the State of Florida and the United States of America. We hereby declare ourselves as Conchs and that our land, Monroe County, known previously as the Florida Keys, now be known as The Conch Republic. Continued on page 6...

DON'T LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU!!

FREE HOTEL RESERVATION SERVICE

Don't spend your precious vacation time searching for a room!

DISCOUNT HOTEL ROOMS • WATERSPORTS • DINING & MORE

KEYS VISITOR CENTER AT GILBERT'S • MM 107.9 KEY LARGO • 305.453.4994