Anglers to Raise Money for Cystic Fibrosis

It's prime time for tarpon at the Redbone Sunrise/Sunset Tarpon Tournament coming up at Hawks Cay Resort in Marathon, April 25th through the 27th, which will benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

"This event is special because we will be fishing in the center of early tarpon season," said Gary Ellis, founder of the Redbone tournaments. "It's famous for that first show of exceptionally large tarpon."

Wade Boggs, a member of the National Baseball Hall of Fame, will serve as the celebrity host for the event. Boggs is a former third baseman in Major League Baseball, primarily with the Boston Red Sox, and he was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2005. With 12 straight All-Star appearances, he is third only to Brooks Robinson and George Brett in number of consecutive appearances as a third baseman.

Registration runs from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday, April 25 and will be followed by a kick-off gala dinner with a silent auction. The dinner is open to the public, and auction prizes include bonefish trips to the Bahamas, trips to other Redbone events around the country, fishing rods, jewelry, artwork and more.

On Saturday, April 26, anglers will fish at dawn from 6 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. and again at dusk from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. On Sunday, April 27 they will fish again from 6 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

The event will close with an awards luncheon on Sunday at 1 p.m.

Ellis noted that with this tournament, Redbone will be re-establishing their presence in Marathon. For many years, they held the Redbone Island Walk and Celebrity Sunset Tarpon Tournament on the old seven mile bridge. Once renovations on the bridge began after Hurricane Wilma, the event was put on hold.

"We had no plans of restarting the tournament until Hawks Cay contacted us and wanted to put it back on the map," Ellis said. "The timing was perfect with the new ownership and the renovation of Hawks Cay."

Hawks Cay re-opened in February 2008 following a $35 million renovation with 177 newly redesigned guest rooms and 225 two- and three-bedroom villas, most of which will be renovated this summer. Their new signature restaurant, Alma, features Nuevo Latino cuisine and their Beach Grill strives for a more casual dining experience. The resort pool doubled in size and now showcases a dramatic sun terrace and veranda.

In addition to hosting the tournament, Hawks Cay is also the host resort for the popular "Saltwater Experience" fishing show. With the full-service marina located directly on property, tournament anglers can begin fishing upon arrival.

All of the proceeds from the Sunrise/Sunset Tarpon Tournament will benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Since their first tournament was produced in 1988, Redbone has raised over $10 million. In 2007 alone, tournaments bearing the Redbone name raised $1.5 million net for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

The entry fee is $2,500 per two angler team, which includes guide fee and socials for each angler and a guest.
