

Key Largo Boat Parade December 13

The waters of Blackwater Sound will be shimmering with color as the annual Key Largo Boat Parade sets sail on Dec. 13th at 7:30 PM. 'Groovin' in the 60's' is this years theme. We thought this would be a popular, fun theme and once again we expect this to be the best parade ever, with even more boats and as many participants as possible" said Sue Finney, event coordinator.

"The parade route will be to the north" said Robert Stoky, parade committee member. "The boats will line up at the headpin to Dusenbury Creek and then will continue north along the shoreline to the tip of Stillwright Point," said Stoky "This way all of the people who live south of the Marriott see the parade from the shore," said Stoky.

There is $1500 in cash and awards for Best in Parade, Best

Use of Theme, Most Colorful, Most Original, Best Business, Best Boat Under 25' and Best Boat Over 25'. There is no entry fee to join the parade, all entries receive a fabulous ditty bag and win great raffle prizes at the Captains Party on Friday evening the 12th. In addition every entry except the overall winner will qualify for a $500 cash drawing. The winner will be picked at random at the awards party after the parade.

There is no entry fee to join the parade "All we ask is that the captains have a VHF radio, the proper safety gear, and a bunch of holiday spirit," said Finney. Boats should sign up as soon as possible. To register your boat or for more information, call Robert Stoky at (305) 451-4502; or Sue Finney at (305) 394-3736 or go to www.keylargoboatparade.com.

Business Spotlight Printing Plus

Printing Plus is the only printer in town with in-house facilities for printing and binding. Located in Key Largo at mile marker 99 in Cedar Towers (across from NAPA), this locally owned and operated shop has been serving the Upper Keys since 1997. The owners are Cathy and T.C. Johnson, and it was initially Cathy's idea to open her own shop, having worked in the printing industry since 1987. At that time there were several printers already in town, but Printing Plus alone has survived all of them and is now the only in-house printer from Homestead to Long Key.

aboard as the press operator, after retiring from a career in air conditioning. Between the two, they have an abundance of knowledge and experience in the printing industry and can help you tackle any job.

The shop's hours of operation are Monday - Friday 9 am to 5 pm. They can do anything from letterhead to NCR business forms and preparations for direct mailings. They also do t-shirts - transfers, silkscreen and embroidery; copy jobs, rubberstamps and more.

To ask about your printing needs stop in and see them or give them a call at 305-451-4414.
