Political Satire: Robot Maitre D'

A man walked into a very high-tech restaurant in a fancy hotel. As he waited to be seated, he noticed that the Maitre D' was a robot.

The robot clicked to attention and said, 'Sir, there is a one hour wait. I am programmed to converse with you until a table is ready, if you please.'

Intrigued, the man said, 'OK.'

The robot clicked and asked, 'Sir, what is your IQ?'

The man answered, 'Oh, about 164.'

The robot then proceeded to discuss the theory of relativity, Interstellar space travel, the latest medical breakthroughs, etc.

The man was most impressed. The next day he returned, but thought he would try a different tack.

The robot again asked, 'What is your IQ, sir?'

This time the man answered, 'Oh, about 100.'

So the robot started discussing NASCAR racing, the latest basketball scores, and what to expect the Red Sox to do this weekend.

The guy had to try it one more time. So the next day he returned.

Again the robot asked the question, 'What is your IQ?'

This time the man drawled out, 'Uh... 'bout 50.'

The robot clicked, then leaned close and very slowly asked, 'A-R-e y-O-U-R p-e-O-p-l-e G-O-I-n-G t-O n-O-m-I-n-a-t-e H-I-l-l-a-R-y?

Advice Column by a Man

Dear Walter:

I hope you can help me here. The other day I set off for work leaving my husband in the house watching the TV as usual. I hadn't gone more than a mile down the road when my engine conked out and the car shuddered to a halt. I walked back home to get my husband's help. When I got home I couldn't believe my eyes. He was in the bedroom with a neighbor lady making mad passionate love to her. When I confronted him, he broke down and admitted that he'd been having an affair for the past six months.

I told him to stop or I would leave him. I love him very much, but ever since I gave him the ultimatum he's become increasingly distant.

I cannot get through to him. Please help!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Sheila Usk

Dear Sheila:

A car stalling after being driven a short distance can be caused by a variety of faults with the engine. Start by checking that there is no debris in the fuel line. If it is clear, check the jubilee clips holding the vacuum pipes onto the inlet manifold. If none of these approaches solves the problem, it could be that the fuel pump itself is faulty, causing low delivery pressure to the carburetor float chamber.

I hope this helps,

Walter
