Check Out These Locals Friendly Places in the Upper Keys

This "Sign of the Times" is on a lawn in Jamestown, New York.

Restaurant owners know that keeping the locals happy brings more business. We that are fortunate enough to live in the Fabulous Florida Keys are also prone to getting guests. Where do we take them that is comfortable and the price is right. These are a few of the places that welcome locals with open arms...

The Pilot House at 13 Seagate Blvd. in Key Largo has Happy Hour from 4 to 7 every day. Locals Day is every Wednesday and you get 20% everything including Happy Hour prices. Stop in and see Bush, the Coconut Telegraphs Bartender of the Year.

Check out the All New Paradise Pub and Grill, MM 103 oceanside. You can get late night food till 1 AM. Happy Hour is 7 days a week featuring wings and peel and eat shrimp for 40 cents each. There is no smoking inside but feel free to light up in the outside beer garden. The "Pub" is home to the original Cheeseburger in Paradise.

Coconut's, MM 100, behind the Holiday Inn is set right on Key Largo Harbor. Watch all the big boats including the Key Largo Princess Glass Bottom Boat go by (don't forget to wave) while you are enjoying special discounts. Get yourself a Coco Club Card from the beautiful Colleen and save 10%. Free meal on your birthday and Happy Hour is 7 days a week, 4 to 7p.m., with live entertainment 6 days. Relax to the soothing sounds of Kim Bankston, Bobbe Brown and JR Reed, the Key Largo Joe Cocker. Half price well, draft and bottles and on the Happy Hour Raw bar.

The Big Chill at MM 104 bayside is a new establishment that has started out locals friendly. Happy Hour is 4-7 p.m., 7 days a week. All draft beer including Heineken, Key West Ale and Sierra Nevada is $1 for a 13 oz glass. All well drinks are $3. Get a pool pass for $25 (kids are free) and your drinks and food get discounted off it. All locals get 10% off. Ladies night is Tuesday at the Martini bar inside. Ladies drink for free between 6 and 7p.m. Stop in and see Pam Godfrey at the Sun 103 Radio Show. Tell our favorite bartender Nicko that
