Bartender of the Month Lisa Lardinois at Marley's

One of the Upper Keys greatest bartenders has left Holiday Isle to work at Marley's Bayside Tiki Bar. Lisa Lardinois got tired of all the politics and battling the traffic on the long drive to Holiday Isle so Marley's scooped her up in a New York second and the locals are ecstatic!

Lardinois continues, "Happy hour is 4-7 p.m. daily with $1 domestic draft beer. And Chef Oscar from Peru makes the best ceviche. All my old customers from Holiday Isle just rave about it!"

Lardinois moved to Key Largo from Wisconsin four years ago. She calls home a 1968 40-foot Seagoing Houseboat that she shares with her German Shepherd, Cheyenne. The boat, aptly named "Little house on the water" is moored in the anchorage just off Jewfish Creek Bridge. When we asked Lardinois what time she closes the bar she said "around 11-ish, but if there are people here I'm staying." That's when we knew she deserved to be Bartender of the Month.
