Entertainer of the Month Ted Hyde Band

Sunday, August 16 was the 40th anniversary of Woodstock and Grateful Ted Hyde could not let it go by without a celebration. He convinced Paul and Adam, the owners of Sharkey's Pub and the Galley Restaurant that a party was in order. It was a sight to be seen. Tie dye tee shirts, bandannas, beads, hippies and flowers everywhere, you could feel the peace and love, man! Then the Ted Hyde Band hit the stage and all eyes were on them as they kicked off their sandals, and played the night away while the food and drinks kept flowing. It just doesn't get any better than this.

Ted Hyde has been entertaining the Florida Keys since 1976. Perhaps you remember the duos with Fiddlin Red and Ken Smith. "It's hard to find musicians that compliment each other and it's rare when it's magical," says Ted.

Ted Hyde Band is no ordinary band. Bob "Bebob" Grabowski plays a weird looking instrument called a Fretless Electric Bass. It is hard to take your eyes off of him. It is mesmerizing! Bebob is the Jazz History Professor at FIU and has entertained at Tobacco Road in Miami for 20 years.

On the drums is Bobby Thomas, Jr. who is world famous and totally amazing. Bobby has played with Weather Report and Jaco Pastorius. "Jaco Pastorius is probably the best bass player that ever lived," says Grateful Ted.

If that's not impressive enough wait till you hear them. Their sound is a blend of rock, blues, jazz and original music in free form jamming technique unique to the Keys. Catch the gig on Sundays from 6 to 10 live at Sharkey's Pub.

Editorial:

Thank you Pat Thompson and Party for the Pantry Info

Thank you to Ocean Reef Club member Pat Thompson! The Coconut Telegraph remembers her from 3 years ago when we met at Pierre's Restaurant for the Calendar for the Cure kick off party. Thanks to Ms. Thompson's dream and tireless efforts to bring the Susan G. Komen for the Cure for Breast Cancer Research to the Keys, it is now a reality. The expanded Miami/Fort Lauderdale affiliate brings breast cancer screenings, education and treatment programs countywide to Monroe County residents. Making these programs convenient to locals could potentially save many lives. For more info call 305-383-7716 or email info@komenmiaftl.org.

The Coconut Telegraph/WORZ 3rd Anniversary Party for the Burton Memorial Church Food Pantry is scheduled for Sunday, November 22 at the Pilot House

Restaurant, 13 Seagate Blvd., Key Largo. There will be entertainment by many of the Coconut Telegraph's Entertainers of the Month, scrumptious Pilot House food, door prizes and raffles. So far we have a week's stay at a condo on a lake in the Carolinas and a 2-night 3-day stay at Fisherman's Cove in Key Largo and are hoping to get a golf cart donated. It is our goal that no one in the Keys goes hungry over the holidays. So far our sponsors also include First State Bank, Island Information Services, All Keys Gas, Mark Mills from Clear Channel Radio, the Islamorada Women of the Moose and the Upper Keys Quarter Club. If you would like to donate raffle items or door prizes please call Denise at 305-304-2837. This event is open to the public; just bring a non-perishable food item for the pile to be eligible to win.
