Word Play or a Play on Words

Avenge or revenge?

Avenge is a verb. To avenge is to punish a wrongdoing with the intent of seeing justice done.

Revenge can be used as a noun or a verb. It is have been done. It may or may not be heartfelt i.e. a person may apologize without feeling any remorse.

"I'm sorry" is a truer admission of regret. It is what we may call a more personal and less concerned with justice and more about retaliation by inflicting harm.

Sympathy or empathy?

Sympathy implies a feeling of recognition of another's suffering while empathy is actually sharing another's suffering, if only briefly.

Empathy is the ability to "put ones self in another's shoes".

I'm sorry or I apologize?

An apology is a formal admission of doing something that shouldn't heartfelt apology. If someone says they are sorry but do not feel remorse, then they are lying.

Knowledge or wisdom?

Knowledge is information of which someone is aware. It is also used to mean the confident understanding of a subject and the ability to use it for a specific purpose.

Wisdom is the ability to make correct judgments and decisions. Wisdom is gained through experience.

It's Not Always a Match Made in Heaven

Getting Rid of Blind Dates

- At dinner, guard your plate with fork and steak knife, so as to give the impression that you'll stab anyone who reaches for it.
- Collect the salt shakers from all of the tables in the restaurant, and balance them in a tower on your table.
- Wipe your nose on your date's sleeve. Twice.
- Make funny faces at other patrons, then sneer at their reactions.
- Repeat every third third word you say say.
- Give your claim to fame as being voted "Most Festerous" in your high school yearbook.
- Read a newspaper or book during the meal. Ignore your date.
- Stare at your date's neck, and grind your teeth audibly.
- Twitch spastically. If asked about it, pretend you don't know what they are talking about.
- Stand up every five minutes, circle your table with your arms outstretched, and make airplane sounds.
- Order a bucket of lard.
- Ask for crayons to color the placemat. This works very well in fancier venues that use linen tablecloths.
- Howl and whistle at women's' legs, especially if you are female.
- Recite your dating history. Improvise. Include pets.
- Pull out a harmonica and play blues songs when your date begins talking about themselves.
- Sacrifice french fries to the great deity, Pomme.
- When ordering, inquire whether the restaurant has any live food.
- Without asking, eat off your date's plate. Eat more from their plate than they do.
- Drool.
- Chew with your mouth open, talk with your mouth full and spray crumbs.
- Eat everything on your plate within 30 seconds of it arriving.
- Excuse yourself to use the restroom. Go back to the head waiter/hostess and ask for another table in a different part of the restaurant. Order another meal. When your date finally finds you, ask him/her "What in the hell took you so long in the restroom?!?"
- Recite graphic limericks to the people at the table next to you.
- Ask the people at the neighboring table for some of their food.
- Beg your date to tattoo your name on their derriere. Keep bringing the subject up.
- Ask your date how much money they have with them.
- Order for your date. Order something nasty.
- Communicate in mime the entire evening.
- Upon entering the restaurant, ask for a seat away from the windows, where you have a you have a good view of all exits, and where you can keep your back to the wall. Act nervous.
- Lick your plate. Offer to lick theirs.
- Hum. Loudly. In monotone.
- Fill your pockets with sugar packets, salt and pepper shakers, silverware, floral arrangements... anything not bolted down.
- Hold a debate. Take both sides.
- Undress your date verbally. Use a bullhorn.
- Auction your date off for silverware.
