Dear Anny Bannanny

Dear Anny Bannanny,

Have you ever heard the term "Bridezilla?" It is a merging of the words bride and Godzilla, a word for the new breed of brides that will stop at nothing to have the perfect wedding.

Well Ms. Bannanny, this one really takes the cake! Bridezilla's mom and dad were caring for a dying relative and strapped for cash after a few foreclosures. But Bridezilla didn't care, she whined, "They did it for my sister! They have to do it for me!"

Then, grandma passed away and there were funeral expenses. Bridezilla didn't care. Neither of her baby daddies could help so Bridezilla tried to borrow $15,000 for the perfect wedding, but no luck. Coincidentally ever since Bridezilla got a promotion from her place of work the "organization" has lost thousands of dollars in less than a year and could go under. Closing the doors at her place of work would hurt a lot of people, but again Bridezilla didn't care!

Why doesn't Bridezilla care? She doesn't care because she has a rap sheet for fraud, theft and drugs "so what's another crime to her?" To my dismay "Little Miss Goody Two Shoes" Bridezilla had a successful wedding and it was at the expense of everyone who ever helped and cared for her. Is it possible to get through to this white trash Bridezilla with a plain face and big boobs?

Signed,
The Starfish

Dear Starfish,

The real crime here is against Bridezilla's parents who will ultimately be the ones caring for the children while the baby-daddies work and Bridezilla goes to the slammer once again. Has anyone called DCF? Grandma can't get a break, can she? What good is a perfect wedding when she will wind up in jail with nothing to do but stare at some recently divorced pictures? She'll be stuck looking at photos of the home that got foreclosed to pay for her legal defense, and pictures children she can't see because she is in prison as a repeat offender. It must be hell to go through all that plus suffer from drug addiction withdrawal in a freezing cold cell with a thin mattress.

The good news is that maybe in prison Bridezilla will actually learn something. Just hope that she does not pass on her degree of integrity to her children.

Signed,
Anny Bannanny
