Gorilla & Redneck

A small zoo in Georgia obtained a very rare species of gorilla.

Within a few weeks the gorilla, a female, became very difficult to handle. Upon examination, the veterinarian determined the problem. The gorilla was in heat. To make matters worse, there was no male gorilla available.

Thinking about their problem, the Zoo Keeper thought of Bobby Lee Walton, a redneck part-time worker responsible for cleaning the animal cages. Bobby Lee, like most rednecks, had little sense but possessed ample ability to satisfy a female of any species.

The Zoo Keeper thought they might have a solution. Bobby Lee was approached with a proposition. Would he be willing to mate with the gorilla for $500.00?

Bobby Lee showed some interest, but said he would have to think the matter over carefully. The following day, he announced that he would accept their offer, but only under five conditions:

"First", Bobby Lee said, "I ain't gonna kiss her on the lips." The Keeper quickly agreed to this condition.

"Second", he said, "She must wear a 'Dale Earnhardt Forever' T-Shirt." The keeper again readily agreed to this condition.

"Third", he said, "you can't never tell no one about this." The keeper again readily agreed to this condition.

"Fourth", Bobby Lee said, "I want all the children raised Southern Baptist." Once again it was agreed.

"And last," Bobby Lee said, "I'll need another week to come up with the $500.00."

4 Husbands

The local news station was interviewing an 80-year-old lady because she had just gotten married for the fourth time. The interviewer asked her questions about her life, about what it felt like to be marrying again at 80, and then about her new husband's occupation. "He's a funeral director," she answered.

"Interesting," the newsman thought.

He then asked her if she wouldn't mind telling him a little about her first three husbands and what they did for a living. She paused for a few moments, needing time to reflect on all those years. After a short time, a smile came to her face and she answered proudly, explaining that she had first married a banker when she was in her 20s, then a circus ringmaster when in her 40s, and a preacher when in her 60s, and now - in her 80s - a funeral director.

The interviewer looked at her, quite astonished, and asked why she had married four men with such diverse careers.

She smiled and explained,

"I married one for the money, two for the show, three to get ready, and four to go."

Don't be embarrassed. You think you're the first guy whose wife shoved the remote up his ass?

I give up. How many women with PMS does it take to screw in a light bulb, funny boy?

You can't always control who walks into your LIFE... But you CAN control which window you throw them out of.

Dear Anny Bannanny

Dear Anny Bannanny,

I recently stopped in to the new Denny's restaurant in Key Largo for lunch. I did not see any fresh fish on the menu so I ordered the chicken and sausage quesadilla, cheese fries and a water to drink. My tab came to $13.42 before the tip. I must say the food was good but the ambiance really sucked. When I first got there, there were employees sitting on the front stairs that I had to carefully maneuver around to get in the place and then I felt like I had walked in to a Denny's in the ghetto of any big city. I did not see any local Keys people working there that day. Why? I asked my lovely and excellent server Nancy where she was from and she replied "Homestead." I even hear that they are opening a bar! Who in tarnation would want to go have cocktails in a Denny's? Why would anyone want to go eat there instead of one of our local non-chain restaurants? Along with fishing, diving snorkeling and boating, the Upper Keys are known for having the freshest local seafood and finest restaurants in all the Keys. So why eat at an overpriced Denny's?

Yours Truly,
Flabbergasted

Dear Flabby,
Although I do agree with you about the fantastic restaurants in the Upper Keys I think that a Denny's has its place in the world of travelers. With over 1,600 Denny's restaurants in the USA and Puerto Rico they spend a fortune on national advertising and they all serve virtually the same things. That is probably why your lunch cost more than it would at most other local venues. For example, you could have gotten a great fish sandwich including fries and coleslaw for only $9.95 at Bayside Grille, and it comes with a free panoramic view of the Florida Bay! Many of the restaurants in this newspaper offer reasonably priced, excellent dining on the water with the exception of the Key Largo Conch House that is surrounded by beautiful lush tropical foliage, so you feel like you are eating in a botanical garden. The food is superb and reasonably priced as well. Doc's Diner located in the heart of downtown Key Largo has fresh food, low prices and home cooked specials by Doc himself. Friendly local faces too.

Many moons ago Anny Bannanny worked the morning shift at Waffle House as a server. During morning hours the clientele was mostly travelers looking for a quick bite to eat on their way to Key West. Many had angry little children that wanted fast food and threw their waffles and huevos at me. They would then trash the bathrooms and leave me $1.00 for a tip if I was lucky. God bless these places for serving such contentious customers with a smile. Anny
