Miami Sailor Wins Hobie Nationals

The Hobie National Championship has been held in the Florida Keys on the first weekend of December for sixteen years now, bringing lots of sailors and their friends to this great sailing venue during the off season time for the Keys. The visitors always enjoy the great sailing in our warm and clear waters.

Miami sailor Kenny Pierce flies a hull to take the lead and win.

The Wave is a rotomolded catamaran whose class has been growing rapidly in the United States and is considered one of the most active one-design fleets in the country, with a very active fleet at the Upper Keys Sailing Club in Key Largo. The boat is 13 feet in length, has only one sail and is sailed by one person.

Islander Resort, and sponsored by Catamaran Sailor Magazine and CABB (Catamaran Assn of Biscayne Bay).

Next year the event will again be held at the Islander, the first weekend in December. For more information go to catsailor.com or email rick@catsailor.com.
