

A young Navy Pilot was severely injured while ejecting from his A-4 Skyhawk after engine failure during a catapult shot from the aircraft carrier. Due to the heroics of a rescue helicopter crew and the ship's hospital staff, the only permanent injury was the loss of one ear.

Since he was physically impaired, he did not remain on flight status but he stayed in the Navy and eventually became an Admiral. He was always sensitive about his appearance.

One day, the Admiral was interviewing two Navy Master Chiefs and a Marine Sergeant Major for his personal staff.

The first Master Chief had a great interview. At the end of it, the Admiral asked him, "Do you notice anything different about me?" The Master Chief answered, "Why, yes, Admiral. I couldn't help but notice that you're missing your starboard ear, and I don't know whether this impacts your hearing on that side." The Admiral got angry at this lack of tact, and threw him out of his office.

The next candidate, an Aviation Master Chief, when asked this same question, answered, "Well, yes, Sir. You seem to be short one ear." The Admiral threw him out, as well.

The third interview was with the Marine Sergeant Major. He was articulate, extremely sharp, and seemed to know more than the two Master Chiefs put together. The Admiral wanted this guy, but went ahead and asked the same question, "Do you notice anything different about me?"

To his surprise, the Sergeant Major said, "Yes, Sir. You wear contact lenses."

The Admiral was impressed, and thought to himself, "What an incredibly tactful Marine."

"And how would you know that?," the Admiral asked. The Sergeant Major replied, "Well, Sir, it's pretty hard to wear glasses with only one f---n' ear."

Overheard on an Airplane

A Mormon was seated next to an Irishman on a Flight from London. After the plane was airborne, drink orders were taken.

The Irishman asked for a whiskey, which was promptly brought and placed before him.

The flight attendant then asked the Mormon if he would like a drink. He replied in disgust, "I'd rather be savagely raped by a dozen whores than let liquor touch my lips."

The Irishman handed his drink back to the attendant and said, "Me, too. I didn't know we had a choice."

IN THE NEWS...

Back on January 9th, a group of Wadesboro, North Carolina bikers were riding east on Hwy.74 when they saw a girl about to jump off the Pee Dee River Bridge. So they stopped.

George, their leader, a big burly man of 53, gets off his Harley, walks through a group of gawkers, past the State Trooper who was trying to talk her down off the railing, and says, "Hey Baby... whatcha doin' up there on that railin'?" She says tearfully, "I'm going to commit suicide!!"

While he didn't want to appear "sensitive," George also didn't want to miss this "be-a-legend" opportunity either, so he asked "Well, before you jump, Honey-Babe...why don't you give ole George here your best last kiss?"

So, with no hesitation at all, she leaned back over the railing and did just that... and it was a long, deep, lingering kiss followed immediately by another, even better one.

After they breathlessly finished, George gets a big thumbs-up approval from his biker buddies, the onlookers, and even the State Trooper, and then says, "Wow! That was the best kiss I have ever had! That's a real talent you're wasting there, Sugar Shorts. You could be famous if you rode with me. Why are you committing suicide?"

"My parents don't like me dressing up like a girl."

It's still unclear whether he jumped or was pushed.

Husband's Text Message To Wife:

"Honey, I got hit by a car outside the office. Karen brought me to the hospital and the doctors are presently doing tests and taking X-rays. Suffered a severe blow to my head but it might not have any lasting effects. A severe laceration to my back required 49 stitches to close, and I have three broken ribs, a broken arm and compound fracture of the left leg. Amputation of the foot is a possibility. Love you..."

Wife's response:

"And just WHO in the hell is Karen???"

Woman's Poem

Before I lay me down to sleep, I pray for a man who's not a creep. One who's handsome, smart and strong, one who loves to listen long. One who thinks before he speaks, one who calls, not wait for weeks. Oh send me a king to make me a queen, a man who loves to cook and clean.

Man's Poem

I pray for a deaf-mute gymnast nymphomaniac with big boobs, who owns a bar on a golf course, and loves to send me out to go fishing and drinking. This doesn't rhyme and I don't give a shit.
