COUNTRY NIGHT with Ricky Valido
Friday May 6th, 7-11pm

Hialeah born and raised country hopeful Ricky Valido will make his Gilbert's debut on Country Night. Ricky plays at the area's best country bars, festivals, the new Margaritaville Resort, and more. An independent artist, he prefers to do things his own way, and he's earning respect from his peers while doing it. Ricky has a few singles released, and is finishing up his debut solo album. His style of music is best described as modern classic country inspired by blues and a little rock and roll. Stop by to see him up close, before he hits it big time, and moves to arenas and TV.

MYLES MANCUSO
Saturday May 7th, 1-5pm

At just 20 years old, Myles was noted by True Fire as one of the Top 10 Guitar Prodigies in the World.

He fronts his own band, singing and playing guitar and keyboards, and has been performing professionally since the age of 10. Myles' sound has been referred to as a unique blend of rockin' rhythm and soul... an upbeat mix of traditional R & B, blues and funk, with a New Orleans flavor. His show transcends age and musical preferences. He has been referred to as inspiring, educational and emphatically entertaining.

Gilbert's May Line-Up of Outstanding Live Entertainment

One attendee put it best after seeing a recent show "It's like seeing a musical legend in the making - this is a 'can't miss' show."

THE FLYERS
Saturday May 7th, 7-11pm

If you thought that South Florida couldn't get any hotter, then you must be one of the few that have not seen the energetic, heart-pounding, power trio called The Flyers! Lighting up nightclubs and festivals with their charismatic take on songs that you know and love, The Flyers truly have the ability to captivate an audience.

The Flyers feature Patrick Farinas on guitar, keys, "b3," drums and lead vocals. Patrick is accompanied by his protege Jordan Richards on bass and Joe Beard on drums. The level of comfort and skill with which they play is a testament to their love of music. With three multi-instrumentalists in the band, don't be surprised to see instruments exchanged in the middle of a song! The Flyers are a must-see act whose shows are filled with loyal fans, popular songs, good vibes, and a great time!

IGOR & RED ELVISES
Sunday May 22nd, 1-6pm

German-born Igor Yuzov grew up in the former Soviet Union, where folk music was the norm and rock 'n' roll was illegal. A rebellious streak led him to seek out the forbidden records. As soon as it became possible, Igor left Russia for America with his folk band Limpopo. The "Crazy Russian Folk 'n' Roll" group were personally greeted by Ronald Reagan and won Ed McMahon's Star Search.

Singer, songwriter, guitarist and showman extraordinaire, Igor is perpetually globetrotting and finding scores of wildly talented, entertaining musicians to bring into the fold of his international party band. Over time, shows have included keyboards, accordions, sax, clarinet, trumpet, flute, banjo, mandolin, tuba and more. Fans can expect to be surprised at Red Elvises shows again and again, however, the roots of the band remain the same: Igor's unique brand of humor combined with guitar-based rock 'n' roll that makes audiences want to sing, dance, scream and shout.

"Sunday Funday" gets EXTRA fun on May 22, when Igor & Red Elvises play at Gilbert's. Stop by to see the extraordi-

ROGUE THEORY Memorial Day
Monday May 30th, 1-6pm

Cap off your Memorial Day Weekend with a special show by Rogue Theory at Gilbert's. When you think of a violin, you probably think of any of Beethoven's compositions, or Pachelbel's Canon in D. But what about Sweet Home Alabama, Superstition, or Folsom Prison Blues? Rogue Theory frontman Harry Bayron has updated and electrified rock and classic rock songs with his electric violin and effects pedals, and the sound is amazing. Since 2012, Rogue Theory has been a staple in the South Florida music scene, playing every weekend in clubs from Orlando to Key Largo. Another show you will not want to miss!
