Word Play

AVENGE OR REVENGE? Avenge is a verb. To avenge is to punish a wrongdoing with the intent of seeing justice done. Revenge can be used as a noun or a verb. It is more personal and less concerned with justice and more about retaliation by inflicting harm.

I'M SORRY OR I APOLOGIZE? An apology is a formal admission of doing something that shouldn't have been done. It may or may not be heartfelt i.e. a person may apologize without feeling any remorse. "I'm sorry" is a truer admission of regret. It is what we may call a heartfelt apology. If someone says they are sorry but do not feel remorse, then they are lying.

SYMPATHY OR EMPATHY? Sympathy implies a feeling of recognition of another's suffering while empathy is actually sharing another's suffering, if only briefly. Empathy is the ability to "put ones self in another's shoes".

KNOWLEDGE OR WISDOM? Knowledge is information of which someone is aware. It is also used to mean the confident understanding of a subject and the ability to use it for a specific purpose. Wisdom is the ability to make correct judgments and decisions. Wisdom is gained through experience.
