THINK FAST

A woman and her husband were having a dinner party for some important guests. The wife was very excited about this and wanted everything to be perfect, so she planned an exquisite French feast. At the very last minute, however, she realized that she didn't have any snails for the dinner party. She asked her husband to run down to the beach with the bucket to gather some.

He agreed, begrudgingly, so he took the bucket, walked out the door, down the steps and out to the beach.

As he was collecting the snails, he noticed a beautiful woman strolling alongside the water just a little further down the beach. He kept thinking to himself, "Wouldn't it be great if she would even just come down and say hi to me."

He went back to gathering the snails. All of a sudden he looked up, and the beautiful woman was standing right over him. They started talking and she invited him back to her place. They ended up spending the night together.

At seven o'clock the next morning he woke up and exclaimed, "Oh shit! My wife's dinner party!" He gathered all his clothes, put them on real fast, grabbed his bucket, and ran out the door. He ran down the beach all the way to his apartment. He ran up the stairs of his apartment. He was in such a hurry that when he got to the top of the stairs, he tripped and dropped the bucket, leaving snails scattered everywhere.

Then the door opened with a very angry wife standing demanding where on earth he's been all this time. He looked at the snails all down the steps, then he looked at her, then back at the snails and said, "Come on guys!!! We're almost there!!"

The Amish and the Elevator

A fifteen-year-old Amish boy and his father were in a shopping mall.

They were amazed by almost everything they saw, but especially by two shiny silver walls that could move apart and then slide back together again.

The boy asked, "What is this Father?"

The father (never having seen an elevator) responded, "Son, I have never seen anything like this in my life, I don't know what it is."

While the boy and his father were watching with amazement, a fat old lady in a wheelchair moved up to the moving walls and pressed a button. The walls opened, and the lady rolled between them into a small room. The walls closed and he boy and his father watched the small numbers above the walls light up sequentially.

They continued to watch until it reached the last number. and then the numbers began to light in the reverse order. Finally the walls opened up again and a gorgeous blond stepped out.

The father, not taking his eyes off the young woman, said quietly to his son, "Go get your mother."

BLESS YOUR HEART!

I'm fixin' to tell you something about being southern. Being southern doesn't mean that I'm not educated. I may say "ain't" and "y'all" and call you "Sweetie" or "Honey" and I might "bless a lot of hearts" and I might even "piddle around". I'll greet you with a big "Howdy". All soda pop is "Coke" and I keep them in my "icebox" and I might refer to my grocery cart as a "buggy" and by golly that's okay. I'm polite and say "Ma'am" and "Sir". And if you hear a southerner say, "Oh, HELL no!!" you'd better run. Y'all have great day now, ya hear?!

I wonder why we are so so obsessed with trying to find intelligent life on other planets, when we can't even find intelligent life here?

PAPER OR PLASTIC?

People mess me up every time I go to the grocery store. You would think they could figure it out for themselves, but now they ask "paper or plastic?" every time I check out. This just knocks me for a loop. I bought some of those cloth reusable bags to avoid looking confused, but I never remember to take them with me.

So now I toss it back to them. When they ask me, "paper or plastic?" I just say, "Doesn't matter to me. I am bi-saksual. Then it's their turn to stare at me with a blank look!

Physical Therapy for Golfers

Two women were playing golf. One teed off and then watched in horror as her ball headed directly toward a foursome of men playing the next hole.

The ball hit one of the men. He immediately clasped his hands together at his groin, fell to the ground and proceeded to roll around in agony. The woman rushed down to the man, and immediately began to apologize. "Please at least allow me to help. I'm a Physical therapist and I know I could relieve your pain if you'd allow me," she told him.

"Oh, no, I'll be all right. I'll be fine in a few minutes," the man replied. He was in obvious agony, lying in the fetal position, still clasping his hands there at his groin.

At her persistence, however, he finally allowed her to help. She gently took his hands away and laid them to the side, loosened his pants and put her hands inside.

She administered tender and artful massage for several long moments and asked, "How does that feel?"

"Feels great, he replied; but I still think my thumb's broken!"
