Rotary Club of Key Largo names Dan Cornell "Rookie of the Year"

The Rotary Club of Key Largo recently named Dan Cornell "Rookie of the Year." Dennis Caltagirone, immediate past president of the Club, presented Cornell with the award at an event earlier this month.

Cornell joined Key Largo Rotary in March 2017. During his first year as a club member, he eagerly participated in service projects and was elected to serve on the board of directors for a four-year term. He is now in succession to be president of the Rotary Club of Key Largo for 2020-21.

Cornell was also tapped to serve in a new role with Rotary District 6990, as a Florida Keys leader of Rotary Means Business. The networking group will host meetings throughout South Florida promoting business referrals among members, and membership will be open to Rotarians.

Dan moved to Key Largo with wife Laurie from Ann Arbor, Michigan in 2016. Together they enjoy fishing, scuba diving, and biking. He is a vice president of lending, licensed in Michigan and Florida, for residential mortgages.
