Editorial: Jellyfish Season - 101 uses for Jellyfish (a partial list)

It seems all we hear or see on the local news is about iguanas and pythons taking over South Florida but nothing on the slimy, awful zillions of jellyfish. What good are they? Here are some ideas:

Japanese gourmet delicacy.

Put in blender, add alcohol and drink.

Hair styling gel.

Wig or toupee replacement.

Organic breast implants.

Frozen hockey puck.

Unwelcome mat.

Shower cap.

Christmas tree decoration.

Sting yourself just for the hell of it.

Peanut butter and jellyfish sandwich.

Instant jellofish dessert.

Macho condom.

Security device - nail to your front door.

Excuse to avoid a date (gotta wash my jellyfish).

Practical jokes - put one in purse and watch from a distance. Stick under hood of friend's car.

Self defense - Walk into a room swinging a jellyfish over your head and command instant respect.

Pet - jellyfish do not disturb neighbors and are easy to feed. Don't forget to spay or neuter yours.

The Coconut Telegraph's Islamorada Treasure Map is Coming!

Key Largo's map was a great success... now here comes Islamorada!

The Coconut Telegraph and artist extraordinaire Rodney Nelson have joined forces to bring you a fascinating Islamorada Treasure Map!

Hundreds of dollars worth of prizes will be awarded to those who can find the hidden secrets and mistakes throughout the map.

Locals and advertisers can make history by getting their caricature, business, building, vehicle, boat, airplane, etc. drawn by Nelson on this collectible, history-making map.

Thousands of copies will be available throughout Islamorada as gifts from our advertisers! It will also be available on the Coconut Telegraph's website, available worldwide!

We will come to you and take photos for the artist to draw. Hurry to get your very own original Nelson caricature on your piece of the island. Call or text us at 305-304-2837 today to get started.

Exciting New Concept Food Service in Key Largo! Chef Clark's Ocean Bay Cafe at the American Legion

Key Largo's Clark Huff's mild-mannered, sweet personality may be reminiscent of Clark Kent, the mild-mannered and serious alter ego Clark Kent of Superman fame... but in the kitchen he is the ultimate Super Chef!

Illustration by Rodney Nelson.

That's five full meals I got for only $10 each, and there is no charge for delivery from Key Largo to Islamorada! I chose to pick mine up. This was going to hold me while I holed out at home, patiently waiting for the crazy mini lobster season to end. I would not have to cook or navigate around tourists all week!

That night I popped a meal in the microwave for 3 minutes, according to directions on the container. OMG! I was in heaven as I inhaled every sumptuous morsel and examined the containers a little closer - they had sent me home with the wrong package!

I had just ingested the Keto Diet - grilled pesto chicken with broccoli, boursin and olives, and it was screaming delicious! My pleasingly plump bodacious bod was inadvertently on a diet!

Chef Clark apologized for the mixup and said the next week's meals

Each week Chef Clark prepares four mouth-watering, different menus to choose from. They are: 1. The regular Clean Meal Plan, 2. the low-calorie Keto Meal Plan, 3. the Low-fat Meal Plan and 4. the Plant-based Meal Plan for vegetarians. Each meal plan consists of 5 full, delicious meals.

After hearing nothing but rave reviews I had to try it. I ordered 5 meals from Plan 1 that included prime rib with demi-glaze over mashed potatoes and side of steamed vegetables; applewood-smoked pork platter with potato salad, steamed green beans with house-made sauce; grilled chicken Alfredo over pasta with a vegetable medley; mango-glazed pork loin over rice pilaf with steamed vegetables; and southern-style "chicken divine" - chicken broccoli cheese casserole.

were on him. The point is - you can't get a bad meal from him no matter what.

My second meal topped the first. Brown butter shrimp over spaghetti squash marinara with fresh green beans. The shrimp was the best I have ever eaten! Amazing! I'm hooked on Keto now.

Chef Clark and his lovely wife Martha have lived in the Keys for five years. He is a certified Executive Chef and certified Culinary Administrator who has been in the food business since the age of 14. He formerly worked for the Governor of Arkansas and personally served 4 different US Presidents!

Clinton was one of the Presidents Chef Clark served.

The Huffs completely remodeled the kitchen at the Legion from floor to ceiling, and brought in new equipment. It is sparkling clean. Chef Clark loves veterans and he and Chef Clark smoking briskets for Jam Night at the American Legion.

Martha created a fund from donating their tips to help veterans.

They recently cooked and personally delivered 2 weeks of meals (28 meals) to Legion member Chris Fouts and his wife Stephanie. (Chris is recovering from a motorcycle accident.) It was covered by the fund. 10% of the Huff's profit goes to the Legion.

You can get served dinner on Fridays from 5 to 8 pm (family style portions available) and they just started Sunday Brunch from 10 to 2.

How to order for yourself or as a gift - it's $12 per meal, or $10 per meal when ordering 5 or more, and only $9 each when ordering 10 meals or more per week. Menus are posted on Ocean Bay's Facebook site, they are printed and available at the Legion or call 501-626-2424. You can also email him at ClarkTHuff@gmail.com. Their website will be up soon.

Order by 5 PM Thursday for Sunday pick-up or Monday delivery. Super Chef Clark also does catering for large or small parties and once served 5,000 at the Little Rock Arena. Call now and tell them the Coconut Telegraph sent you.

Chef Clark visits with Chris Fouts.

Nine Important Facts

Number 9 - Death is the number 1 killer in the world.

Number 8 - Life is sexually transmitted.

Number 7 - Good health is merely the slowest possible rate at which one can die.

Number 6 - Men have two emotions: hungry and horny, and they can't tell them apart. If you see a gleam in his eyes, make him a sandwich.

Number 5 - Give a person a fish and you feed them for a day. Teach a person to use the Internet and they won't bother you for weeks, months, maybe years.

Number 4 - Health nuts are going to feel stupid some day, lying in the hospital, dying of nothing.

Number 3 - All of us could take a lesson from the weather. It pays no attention to criticism.

Number 2 - In the 60's, people took acid to make the world weird. Now the world is weird, and people take Prozac to make it normal.

Number 1 - Life is like a jar of jalapeno peppers. What you do today might burn your ass tomorrow.

...and as someone recently said: Don't worry about old age; it doesn't last that long.

Have You Talked With Your Pet About Pot?

It all started on a Tuesday night, when I came home from work to an unmistakable absence. My brown-and-white pitbull mix, Maizey, wasn't at the top of the stairs to greet me. Instead, she was in her bed, shaky and confused.

When I tried to get her up, she stumbled, nearly falling over while standing still. Walking to the vet, she leaped like a puppy chasing imaginary balls.

Later, at the 24-hour veterinary clinic, the staff ran tests and determined Maizey was in no immediate danger.

Instead, they wagered a guess that Maizey was simply high. On marijuana.

How Are Dogs Getting High?

"Dogs will get into anything and everything," said veterinarian Dorrie Black of the San Francisco-based veterinary clinic Animal Internal Medicine Services.

Thirty-three states and the District of Columbia now have legalized pot in some form. And since Colorado ushered in recreational marijuana in 2014, nine more states and D.C. have followed. As weed has become easier for people to get, it has also become a hazard for dogs.

Black said dogs ingest marijuana by eating the remainder of a joint, or getting into someone's edible marijuana, either at home, on the street or in parks.

Another unsavory source in San Francisco — and other cities with high numbers of people living on the streets — is human feces tainted with marijuana. This is, in fact, what we think happened to Maizey. She had spent quite a bit of time in the park bushes the morning she got stoned. "Dogs love that [feces] scent; to them, it's perfume," said Black.

Black and other veterinarians see this becoming more common in urban area, as the homeless population grows.

How does a high dog look?

Veterinarian Benjamin Otten says he looks for these symptoms when identifying "marijuana toxicity" in a dog:

- Wobbly movements, like a person who is drunk
- Dribbling urine
- A dazed or glazed look in their eyes
- Low temperature
- Nervousness

Dogs exhibit these symptoms because THC — the psychoactive element of marijuana — is poisonous to them. Despite that, none of the vets interviewed had seen an animal die from it.

"There's nothing about that actual drug itself that will kill them," Black said. "It doesn't cause any organ failure. It doesn't cause liver failure, renal failure."

What can happen, Black said, is that the drug can sedate a dog so fully that it will inhale its own vomit, which can be lethal. For that reason, Black cautions pet owners to play it safe.

"If you do not know the quantity that they got into, I'm always going to recommend that you go to your vet," she said.

Dr. Dorrie Black works at a 24-hour veterinary clinic near Golden Gate Park in San Francisco. She says she often treats three dogs per week who have ingested marijuana. (Laura Klivans/KQED)

A Colorado study found that two dogs who'd ingested chocolate baked goods made with marijuana-infused butter had died, but it's unclear if this was from the marijuana, the chocolate or the combination. Butter and dark chocolate, common ingredients in edible marijuana products, can be highly toxic to dogs.

Cannabidiol, or CBD, on the other hand, is marketed to pet owners for a variety of pet ailments. But the research is incomplete about its efficacy for treating things like animal anxiety and seizures, and veterinarians are not allowed to recommend CBD to patients (although a bill making its way through California's Senate could change that).

How do you treat a dog that has ingested marijuana?

To reduce marijuana's effects on a dog, Black said, there are a few options: Veterinarians can induce vomiting, pump a dog's stomach or give the dog activated charcoal, which will help remove the marijuana from the dog's system.

On average, it typically takes about 24 hours for a dog to return to normal — but it varies depending on the strength and amount of marijuana the dog has eaten.

Otten, who formerly worked as an emergency vet, joked about what he used to tell pet owners: "We're gonna take your dog in, we're gonna put him in a quiet room. We're gonna play some Led Zeppelin for him and give him some Doritos, and you can pick him up in the morning."

The Mangrove Galley by Sandi Mieszczenski

One of the best things of summer is the availability of great, juicy fruits. Walking through a produce market or the produce section of the grocery store lends itself to so many choices.

Cherries are one of my favorite fruits this time of the year. The recipe below is French and is a wonderful combination of almonds, cherries, and a custard like filling. It is not too difficult to prepare and is worth the effort. So enjoy!

Sandi's recipes are featured here monthly. For previous issues go to theconchtelegraph.com

CHERRY ALMOND CLAFOUTIS

You will need a 10-inch round glass pie dish (such as a Pyrex dish) or you can use a standard pie pan.

- Butter
- 1/2 cup sugar plus 1 tablespoon and sugar for sprinkling
- 1/2 cup plus sliced almonds
- 2 heaping cups pitted cherries
- 4 large eggs at room temperature
- 1/2 teaspoon almond extract
- a pinch of salt
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour plus 1/8 cup
- 1 cup whole milk
- 1/4 cup plus 1/8 cup half and half

Using a stick of butter, wipe it around the bottom and sides of the pie pan. Sprinkle the bottom with 1 tablespoon of the sugar. Scatter 1/2 cup of the almonds over the sugar.

Wash the cherries, then remove the stems and pits. Removing the pits is easiest by using a neat tool called a cherry pitter. Or you can use a small paring knife. Just slice the cherries (do this over a bowl as juices will run out) and remove the pits by hand. Be sure that all pits are removed.

Pour the cherries evenly over the almonds. Using an electric mixer beat the eggs, almond extract, salt, and 1/2 cup of the sugar in a bowl until well blended. Add the milk and half and half and beat again. Add the flour and beat the mixture one last time. Pour the mixture over the cherries.

Sprinkle some additional almonds on the top along with some sugar. Cook in a 375° oven for one hour. After the hour, the Clafoutis should be puffed in the middle. Insert a toothpick and if it comes out clean, the dessert is ready. Cool before serving.

Ladies, you can tell a lot about a man by how dogs react to him. For example, if the police K9 is biting him, he may not be ideal.

Words Have Weight

The more conscious we become, the more we deepen our relationship to the words we choose to use.

WORDS CARRY ENERGY and this gives language its power and its potential to heal or hurt. Most of us can remember a time that someone sent a word our way, and it stuck with us. It may have been the first time we received a truly accurate compliment, or the time a friend or sibling called us a name, but either way it stuck.

and hear affect your body and your emotional state. Notice how the different communication styles of the people in your life make you feel. Also, watch closely to see how your own words come out and what affect they have on the people around you.

You may notice that when we speak quickly, without thinking, or rush to get our ideas across, our words don't carry the same power as when we speak slowly and confidently, allowing those receiving our words time and space to take them in.

This experience reminds us that what we say has weight and power and that being conscious means being aware of how we use words

The more conscious we become, the more we deepen our relationship to the words we use so that we speak from a place of actually feeling what we are saying. We begin to recognize that words are not abstract, disconnected entities used only to convey meaning; they are powerful transmitters of feeling.

When we carefully listen to others before we speak, our words have more integrity, and when we take time to center ourselves before speaking, we truly begin to harness the power of speech.

Then our words can be intelligent messengers of healing and light, transmitting deep and positive feelings to those who receive them.

For the next few days, you might want to practice noticing how the words you say

A girl was visiting her blonde friend, who had acquired two new dogs.

She asked, "What are their names?"

The blonde replied, "That one is Rolex, and that one is Timex."

Her friend said, "Whoever heard of someone naming dogs like that?"

"Well," said the blonde. "They're watch dogs..."

Always REMEMBER YOU are not Worthless... After all, ORGANS are extremely expensive on the black market.

Yesterday my daughter e-mailed me, asking why I didn't do something useful with my time. "Like, me sitting around the pool and drinking wine is not a good thing?" I asked.

My "doing-something-useful" is her favorite topic of conversation. She was "only thinking of me", she said and suggested that I go down to the Senior Center and join something.

I did this and when I got home last night, I decided to play a prank on her. I e-mailed her and told her that I had joined a Parachute Club.

She replied, "Mother, are you nuts? You are 78 years old and now you're going to start jumping out of airplanes?"

I told her that I even got a Membership Card and e-mailed a copy to her. She immediately phoned me and yelled, "Good grief, Mom, where are your glasses?! This is a Membership to a Prostitute Club, not a Parachute Club."

I calmly replied, "Oh my, I think I'm in real trouble then, because I signed up for five jumps a week!!"

The line went quiet. her friend picked up the phone and said that my daughter had fainted.

I was sitting on a bus behind a mother and her young son. Her boy kept looking around and pulling funny faces at me.

After a few minutes, I got tired of his antics, so I said, "When I was young, my mother told me that if I made an ugly face and the wind changed, I'd stay that way."

The little jerk replied, "Well, you can't say you weren't warned."

The interviewer says, "That will give you 5 extra points toward employment." Then he asks, "Are you disabled in anyway?"

The guy says, "Yes. A bomb exploded near me and I lost both my testicles."

The interviewer grimaces and then says, "Okay. You are a Disabled Veteran; you've got enough points for me to hire you right now. Our normal hours are from 8:00 am to 4:00 PM. You can start tomorrow at 10:00 am, plan on starting at 10:00 am every day."

The guy is puzzled and asks, "If the work hours are from 8:00 am to 4:00 PM, why don't you want me here until 10:00 am?"

"This is a government job," the interviewer says. "For the first two hours we just stand around drinking coffee and scratching our balls. No point in you coming in for that."

The Catholic Hairdryer

In parochial school students are taught that lying is a sin. However, instructors also advised that using a bit of imagination was OK to express the truth differently without lying. Below is a perfect example of those teachings:

An attractive young woman on a flight from Ireland asked the Priest by the name of Andre beside her, "Father, may I ask a favour?"

"Of course child. What may I do for you?"

"Well, I bought my mother an expensive hair dryer for her birthday. It is unopened but well over the Customs limits and I'm afraid they'll confiscate it. Is there any way you could carry it through customs for me? Hide it under your robes perhaps?"

"I would love to help you, dear, but I must warn you, I will not lie."

"With your honest face, Father Andre, no one will question you."

When they got to Customs, she let the priest Andre go first. The official asked, "Father, do you have anything to declare?"

"From the top of my head down to my waist I have nothing to declare."

The official thought this answer strange, so asked, "And what do you have to declare from your waist to the floor?"

"I have a marvelous instrument designed to be used on a woman, but which is, to date, unused."

Roaring with laughter, the official said, "Go ahead, Father. Next please!"
