

My new social distancing shoes have arrived

I never thought I'd see a catholic priest doing drive by blessings with a water gun but here we are

How long is this social distancing supposed to last? My wife keeps trying to come in the house.

Wyland + Lorelei Mermaid = ICONIC

The iconic Lorelei mermaid at Mile Marker 82 has had a few different "looks" over the years. A handful of talented artists have painted and changed her, with each look being unique and great in its own way. On March 28th, world renowned artist Wyland stopped by and did a wonderful job on her.

A project of this scope and size would certainly take a lot of planning and maybe even a practice run or two. You can't just throw a ladder up there and start painting right?

Well, there is a reason Wyland is one of the most collected living artists in the world and he certainly didn't disappoint. While some of the Lorelei staff might have been a bit nervous (ahem) when Wyland grabbed a ladder and started painting, Wyland was not. After all, this guy has painted over 100 large murals all over the world (Check out his "Whaling Walls" online, or locally in Key West, Marathon and Key Largo) so a 30-foot mermaid should be easy right? Turns out, it was so easy for him, that it only took him 2 hours.

The Lorelei is working on creating a special hybrid Wyland Foundation & Lorelei t-shirt. This t-shirt will feature his mermaid, the Lorelei sunset celebration, and the Wyland Foundation. The Lorelei will donate 50% of the sale price of every shirt sold, directly to the Wyland Foundation. The Wyland foundation is a non-profit dedicated to promoting, protecting and preserving the world's oceans, waterways and marine life.
