local club and there was a local musician filling in for our regular guy. Its an older quiet crowd who are there to socialize with each other but this guy was playing way too loud and the bartender politely asked him to turn it down a notch. The guitar player replied " I might as well leave then", and the bartender said " that is totally up to you". So he called his wife and started packing up his equipment. Soon in walks the carp faced wife screaming, yelling and cursing up a storm at a bunch of senior citizens - some over 80 years old. She claimed we were the worst audience ever! We were dumbfounded! After the shrew popped off a few more F-bombs they left and we were happy they did. Mr. Ego blew off a paid gig. Lesson: The better musicians are self-confidant of their abilities and more down to earth the insecure minor talent ones are just wannabes. When you are rich and famous you can blow off a paid gig - and when will that be for you Mr. Ego? NEVER!

HAVE YOU DATED OR BEEN INVOLVED WITH A MUSICIAN?!

Editorial - Around Town

Welcome to the Coconut Telegraph team Ron Kostick. Ron has many years experience with print advertising and will be happy to help you.

Please read the article on Ocean Dreams Healing on page 7. We all know someone who has cancer and they need to know about this great non-profit organization that can help. As with all illness we need to be pro-active and Terry Sutton and his family are here to help.

My Keys Cruiser died and I needed a new used one quick. Guess what? There are very few used vehicles in my zip code or the rest of the Keys at affordable prices. I finally found one that fits my needs but it needs a new muffler and other things. The good news is you can hear me coming... I sound like a jet engine taking off. As I drove down US 1 ka-thumping under 35 miles per hour. I made a deal with Guy Baust at Guy's towing for my old car and he transferred the tires from it to the new car - what a difference! No more ka-thump! Guy is the 2nd generation owner since his grandfather Jimmy Aurelio passed and I am very impressed with him You'll be hearing more about him in next months issue. Thank you Guy's Towing! Local Musicians. We at the CT love them so much we published a book and started the Musician's Relief Fund through the Elks Lodge with the funds so...A few weeks ago I was at a

'License to Chill' Luxury Yacht

Our guests say it best!
Here's one of our guest reviews:

What an amazing experience!

From the moment we met Kenny and Monica we knew they were special. So welcoming, knowledgeable, and down right fun! The yacht is exceptionally clean and comfortable. We fished, we cruised, we told endless stories and boy did we eat!

They taught us a bit about the yachting life and Mark taught Kenny and Monica what a "tire" was. Lol. It was like taking a vacation with our dearest friends. Thank you for the priceless memories and letting us experience living the dream aboard License to Chill. Can't wait to meet up again soon!
