Florida Keys Dar Adopts Grace Lutheran School Classroom

By Jill Zima Borski, FKDAR member

The Florida Keys chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is steadily making its way geographically among the keys as it adopts classrooms by bestowing a teacher with all her wants and needs. The Keys' DAR, a women's service organization dedicated to promoting historic preservation and education, began participating in the DAR's Community Classroom effort in 2021. That year, they fulfilled teacher Alyssa Adrian's wish list at Treasure Village Montessori in Islamorada with $350 worth of supplies for her special needs students. The following year the STEAM (science, technology, engineering, art and math) class at Key Largo School was supported.

The Florida Keys DAR, a women's service organization dedicated to promoting historic preservation and education, rally around this year's recipient of supplies for her classroom, Sevanah Mrsny-Ferrell at Grace Lutheran School and principal is Amy Donaldson.

Teachers are invited to apply for the grant promoted in a press release, and this year's recipient is Sevanah Mrsny-Ferrell, who works at Grace Lutheran School in Key West. She is building the physical education program from the ground up, said

Principal Amy Donaldson. Donaldson was on hand Jan. 14 to witness the opening of wrapped boxes which generated excitement as balls, a soccer net, fitness dice and other desirable physical education items valued at $633 were unwrapped.

As she thanked the DAR, Ferrell said her largest class is comprised of 22 kids. DAR member Kyla Piscopink of Key West, whose son attends Grace Lutheran School, encouraged her to apply.

Ms. Mrsny-Ferrell has an Associates of Arts degree from the College of the Florida Keys. She is married to a captain and has three daughters. She was born and raised in Wayne, Nebraska but said the Keys create "geographic happiness" for her. She explored life in Jackson Hole and Lake Tahoe and then settled in Key West in 2009.
