Bartender of the Month
Martin Kucera

Faster than Lightning

It is Martin Kucera's co-workers who insisted we choose him for Bartender of the Month and we now know why. Martin is the kind of guy that credits others for his success.

done with work he grabs his tripod and hangs out on the beautiful sandy beach and watches the horizon awaiting an opportunity to photograph the sky on fire. He calls Morada Bay a "photographers dream".

Martin is a Storm Chaser. He moved to the Keys in 2000 from the Czech Republic to pursue his #1 hobby, photographing storms. He applied for work at Morada Bay because he loved the magnificent property and he was hired on as a barback.

"Morada Bay's owner has been great to me and supportive of my storm adventures, especially during the hurricane season."

"While at the bar one of the bartenders took me under his wing and taught me everything I know. He followed me around, looked over my shoulder as he instructed and encouraged me. I would not be talking to you right now if not for him", says Martin who for being in America a short time speaks the language perfectly and is obviously a very fast learner.

Martin is a Certified Severe Weather Spotter for the National Weather Service in Key West. When he calls them they put out a warning and we all listen. He has also produced various videos for TV weather networks. You can see his work on his website FloridaLightning.com.

"Being behind the bar is relaxing and I get to meet people. Morada Bay at sunset is like living a dream. You're not in an office overlooking a parking lot. This place just takes your mind somewhere else."

"Morada Bay is such a great place to work. The bar team and kitchen staff are amazing. My wife Stephanie also works here," says Martin. He welcomes everyone to come in and try the Ahi Tuna Tartare appetizer. "It is an unbelievable dish," he tells us. The staff is very proud of the extraordinary entertainment they have nightly in season and of their Full Moon Party on the beach.

Many nights when he gets
