How to Avoid Mixing Your Metaphors

It's not rocket surgery. First, get all your ducks on the same page. After all, you can't make an omelette without breaking stride.

Be sure to watch what you write with a fine-tuned comb.

Check and re-check until the cows turn blue.

It's as easy as falling off a piece of cake.

Don't worry about opening up a whole hill of beans; you can burn that bridge when you come to it, if you follow where I'm coming from.

Concentrate! Keep your door closed and your enemies closer. Finally, don't take the moral high horse: if the metaphor fits, walk a mile in it.

Know enough to realize when the alligators are in the swamp and it's time to circle the wagons.

So you're not the smartest crayon in the forest! Keep burning the midnight oil at both ends. You'll get it!

Arthurs Island Kitchen

When given the opportunity to utilize a fully-equipped restaurant and bar centrally located on US 1, he and his family were thrilled to have a chance to share their family recipes in their own restaurant. Arthur's Island Kitchen features Floribbean Cuisine which mixes Caribbean and Southern Florida cooking techniques and all fresh ingredients to make dishes that will have your taste buds dancing!

In order to have a successful restaurant off the water, in a place surrounded with controversy, you have to be good, very good... and Arthur Paterson owner of the new Arthur's Island Kitchen located in the VFW Post next to KLI is more than good, he is extraordinary!

Paterson moved to Key Largo in 1988 from the "Spice Island" of Grenada. He has over 30 years experience as a chef. For 15 years he worked at Whale Harbor and the Green Turtle Inn for Henry Rosenthal, at the OV Oceanview Lounge and at the Plantation Key Convalescent Center. All three of Paterson's children were born and raised in Key Largo, and graduated from Coral Shores.

At Arthurs Island Kitchen you can get exotic dishes such as Stew Oxtail (a locals' favorite) or Curry Goat and Calaloo Soup. For the less adventurous, there are steaks, lobster, conch and burgers. A menu to satisfy any palate and at great prices too! Bring the whole family, Arthur has a great children's menu too. Arthur's Island Kitchen offers a 15% discount to all VFW members and a 10% discount to anyone who wears a uniform to work - Armed Forces, firemen, police, nurses, etc. Open Tuesday thru Sunday 11 am - 10 pm and closed Monday. For more info call 305-922-2332, or 305-394-4445.
