

Paraprozdokians

Paraprozdokians are figures of speech in which the latter part of a sentence or phrase is surprising and frequently funny.

1. Where there's a will, I want to be in it.
2. The last thing I want to do is hurt you... but it's still on my list.
3. I'm supposed to respect my elders, but it's getting harder and harder for me to find someone older than me.
4. If I agreed with you, we'd both be wrong.
5. We never really grow up; we only learn how to act in public.
6. War does not determine who is right, only who is left.
7. Going to church doesn't make you a Christian, any more than standing in a garage makes you a car.
8. To steal ideas from one person is plagiarism. To steal from many is research.
9. I didn't say it was your fault, I said I was blaming you.
10. In filling out an application, where it says, "In case of an emergency, notify..." I answered "a doctor."
11. Women will never be equal to men until they can walk down the street with a bald head and a beer gut, and still think they are sexy.
12. You do not need a parachute to skydive. You only need a parachute to skydive twice.
13. I used to be indecisive, but now I'm not so sure.
14. To be sure of hitting the target, shoot first and call whatever you hit the target.
15. Knowledge is knowing a tomato is a fruit. Wisdom is not putting it in a fruit salad.

Early Fourth of July Celebrations

In the pre-Revolutionary years, colonists had held annual celebrations of the king's birthday, which traditionally included the ringing of bells, bonfires, processions and speechmaking. By contrast, during the summer of 1776 some colonists celebrated the birth of independence by holding mock funerals for King George III as a way of symbolizing the end of the monarchy's hold on America and the triumph of liberty.

Festivities including concerts, bonfires, parades and the firing of cannons and muskets usually accompanied the first public readings of the Declaration of Independence, beginning immediately after its adoption. Philadelphia held the first annual commemoration of independence on July 4, 1777, while Congress was still occupied with the ongoing war. George Washington issued double rations of rum to all his soldiers to mark the anniversary of independence in 1778, and in 1781, several months before the key American victory at the Battle of Yorktown, and Massachusetts became the first state to make July 4th an official state holiday. It has been a federal holiday in the United States since 1941.

Wear It

Face Coverings are mandatory

WEAR IN PUBLIC SETTINGS

over your nose AND mouth to reduce the spread of COVID-19.

RESTAURANTS

Facial coverings can be removed while eating and drinking in a restaurant, employees must keep them on the whole time.

ROUTINELY LAUNDR AND MACHINE DRY

to disinfect.

DO NOT TOUCH

eyes, nose, or mouth when removing a face coverings and wash hands often.

FACIAL COVERINGS INCLUDE

scarfs, bandanas, handkerchief, buff, or other similar cloth covering.*

*SAVE N95 MASKS FOR MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS

It is now more important than ever to continue to wear a facial covering throughout the Florida Keys as required by Monroe County ordinance.

Do Facemasks Make Sense?

Let's explain it for dummies:

If we all run around naked and someone pees on you, you get wet right away.

If you are wearing pants, some pee will get through, but not as much. So you are better protected.

But if the guy who pees also is wearing pants, the pee stays with him and you do not get wet.

Is that clear enough?
