REASONS WHY HALLOWEEN IS A STRANGE HOLIDAY
10.... you can cross dress without having to come out of the closet, even in the Upper Keys.
9.... Keys kids consume a waxy substance known as "candy corn."
(The rest of the year the material is used to manufacture patio candles, hot glue and seals for toilets.)
8.... the only time when wearing a white sheet is politically correct.
7.... teaches children that extortion is legal by implying the threat "Give us some candy or we'll toilet paper your house." This is how protection rackets get started. One day it's Reese's Pieces, the next it's unmarked, twenty-dollar bills!
6.... children get to play with knives and matches, carving jack-o-lanterns and lighting them.
5.... no one anywhere is on a diet!
4.... after 364 days of spending money to look beautiful, Keys people spend more to sport warts, long noses and teeth only an orthodontist could love.
3... the Keys fashion police take a day off.
2.... you can wear a mask and go house to house collecting loot in a pillow case—without the Monroe County Sheriffs giving you grief.
1 ... It's complicated. People celebrate the holiday ("holy day") of All Hallows Eve (an ancient rite of moral purification before All Saints Day) by dressing up as devils, vampires, axe murderers and other morally-challenged characters.
