Join us at Key Largo branch Library on Friday, October 3rd for the kickoff of this season's free Concert Series. The first concert is the Amigos, a Rock/Blues/Pop Band that originates from Key Largo. They have recently formed from the rhythm section of the Lower Mat Cats out of Islamorada. This fun-loving group performs with an energetic style striving to bring a smile to the listeners. Their music possesses an infectious beat with groove and soul making you want to join in the fun!

Cleaning up the ocean is something Pirates Cove cares deeply about. Every piece of debris they remove helps protect our reefs and marine life! Join them on their next Dive Against Debris and be part of the solution. pcwatersports.com or call (305) 453-9881.

Parade float of American Legion Post 145 featuring the motor vessel Off Key, Islamorada, ca. 1955. Florida Keys History Center Collection. Islamorada Legion still proud to be American.

Sue Finney and friends.

Deb Riolo won an arrangement made by Garden Club of the Upper Keys' member Pat Saunders who proves local plants can be used for lush arrangements.
